

NANGIA NOW!

NANGIA ADVISORS

We are pleased to announce the launch of the 'Strategic Consulting Division', under the service offerings of Nangia Advisors. This move is directed towards enabling the Nangia group to support our clients' organic and inorganic growth strategies with end to end services.

2013 is expected to be the year, when India's growth story starts getting back on track and we at the Nangia group are uniquely positioned to partner with our clients to take them to the next level of growth that can be achieved on account of the expected economic upturn.

The Nangia group has demonstrated its acumen in executing and supporting its clients' growth strategies through Corporate Finance and Tax Advisory. Now with the formation of the consulting arm within Nangia Advisors, we are now able to be a part of the process starting from inception where we will advise our clients with bespoke growth strategies.

The Group has a team of over 150 in-house professionals with varied experience which includes partners, senior managers, managers and other professionals with clientele spanning over 22 countries across the globe. The resource pool comprises of professionals in diverse disciplines such as Chartered Accountants, MBA's, Advocates, Financial Experts, Market Research Analysts, Financial Research & Management Consultants, Information Technology experts, Company Secretaries etc.

We shall continue to deliver the highest standards of professional services rendered to our patrons.

